EAST. DIV. COLUMBUS

TIMOTHY GALES

CASE NO. 2:21-CV-328

Plaintiff

JUDGE MICHAEL H. WATSON

v.

THOMAS P. CHARLES et, al,

MAGISTRATE JUDGE

KIMBERLY A. JOLSON

CIVIL RULES 4.1. PROCESS METHOD OF SERVICE

Now comes plaintiff Timothy Gales requesting the court for a second attempt to issue the retaliation complaint to Cullen Jackson, an attorney employed with the state of Ohio Office of Collective Bargaining located at 1602 West Broad street Columbus, Ohio 43223.

I find it to be puzzling that the certified mail delivered to the state of Ohio Office of Collective Bargaining was returned as undelivered. I request and will provide the funds to the United States Clerks Office in an attempt to re send to Cullen Jackson at his place of employment noted above. Or, provide directly to the Ohio Attorney General located at 30 East Broad street 16th floor, Columbus, Ohio, 43215 who represents all employee in civil action pursuant 109.02 of the Ohio Revised Code.

Finally, I request to dismiss the Ohio Office of Collective Bargaining as a defendant, which is an entity of the state of Ohio, and under the 11th Amendment of the United States of America are immune from 1983 actions. The Office of Collective Bargaining is the only defendant requested to be dismissed pursuant to an earlier ruling by the honorable judge Watson.
